Victor O. Schinnerer & Company, Inc Announces New Non-Profit D&O Partnership

Chevy Chase, MD — Victor O. Schinnerer & Company, Inc. is pleased to announce a new partnership with Navigators Insurance Company in an expanded Non-Profit Directors & Officers liability program. Schinnerer will underwrite and service the program for Navigators.

“We are very excited to be working with Navigators on this program,” said Lorna Parsons, President and Chief Underwriting Officer at Schinnerer. “We have an excellent opportunity to update our program and expand our appetite for new classes of Non-Profit D&O business with a nationally recognized carrier. We believe this change is in the best interest of our customers as we remain committed to the Non-Profit D&O industry.”

“Navigators forged a relationship with Schinnerer to bring superior products to Non-Profit D&O customers,” said Brian Turner, Vice President at Navigators Management Company, Inc. “The people at Schinnerer have a tremendous amount of expertise and knowledge in bringing comprehensive and profitable programs to its carriers. We are excited to work with Schinnerer on this new and innovative program.”

In addition to the many classes of non-profits Schinnerer currently underwrites, the new program includes expanded classes of business. A full suite of products will also be available giving Schinnerer one of the most comprehensive offerings for Non-Profit D&O business.

The admitted filing of the program is currently under way in all 50 states. To date, 26 states have approved the filing, with more approvals expected shortly.

Any business submitted with an effective date of June 1 or after will be quoted with the new program. Schinnerer will continue to service existing Non-Profit D&O policies under the old program until their expiration date.
